1.3 Information about the candidate city

Plattling is a city with 15,000 inhabitants, in front of the Bavarian woods. Within walking distance of the wave is the city center, with train station and express train ICE stop. By car you are fast on the motorways A92 and A3. Within very short time of one hour you reach the Munich international airport. Plattling has generous temporary camp ground, close to the event area and boast a variety of modern and traditional hotels.

Canoeing, especially canoe freestyle has already a long tradition in Plattling with their Isar-wave. The administration of Plattling is one of the greatest supporters of canoe freestyle in Germany. They not only allows to use the Isar wave, they also provides financial and active support in the organization of competitions. The Plattlinger Wave is located in a nature reserve and has served as a meeting place for the European freestyle scene for years. Every year there are training camps and all kinds of competitions.

We already organized national championships, EuroCups, WorldCups, the European Championships 2016 and the World Championships 2011. Since the Worlds'11, Plattling is been one of the most popular playspots in the world. The sections upper and below the wave offers numerous possibilities for first paddling attempts. The lower Isar below the spot is one of the most beautiful canoe tours in Bavaria.

The Isarwelle is the ideal training spot for beginners. Not only professionals appreciate the easy entrance and their large eddy.

In summertime, the large green areas also attract numerous sun worshipers to chilling, refresh and barbecue. Not a few of them venture into the wave with short surfboards. So the Isarwave has already made a name for itself in surfers scene.

weather and waterlevel

The weather in June is mostly sunny and around 20°C. There is no possibility to regulate the waterlevel. At this time in past the waterlevel was mostly around 200 cm. We can run competitions till 260 cm.

The Isar wave in Plattling is a well known and one of the best Playspots in Europe. This is mainly due to the surrounding conditions. Additionally the wave is absolutely safe. It is easier than everywhere else to enter the wave from the eddy and the big eddy is catching everyone back after a flush or an occasional swim. That makes the work for waterresuce very easy. Without much work we can place the judges tent, media tent and VIP tent close to the feature. Also the spectactors will have a good view to the feature. The venue is big enough for a exhibtion, as camp ground and for site events.

24.1 all events, facilities or venues have weaknesses

We can not regulate the water level. Mostly the water level is good at june. (160-260 cm). If there a strong rain upstream, the waterlevel could rise up fast. In case of a waterlevel over 260 cm, we have to evacuate the venue. The plans exists. Mostly the waterlevel falls down fast. It's possible to run the whole event with one day less or till sunday.

24.2 description of the event concept and vision

After Worlds 2011 and Euros 2016 the organization team and the city of Plattling know what it means to host a big event like the ICF canoe freestyle world championships.

The City of Plattling has a greatfull infrastructure with really short connections to the world. But Plattling is not a big City. That means a Event like the ICF canoe freestyle World Championships is an highlight for a whole decade. Everyone in region is looking forward to be a part of this event. And we can calculate with the financial and active support of the town of Plattling.

In past we got great events at the Isar. One of the key points is, that the biggest part of participants are camping directly at the venue. Every athlete feels like a part of the event.
