PROFILE

With over 35 years of experience in the world of canoeing, I have proven to be a visionary leader committed to the development of the sport on an international level. From the beginning of my career as organizer of multiple high-level events, I have driven the growth and visibility of the sport, fostering inclusion and sustainability. My goal as Vice President of the International Canoe Federation is to continue promoting canoeing in all its forms, improving infrastructures, supporting athletes, and ensuring a bright and accessible future for the next generations of paddlers.
